SCHÜTZ VASITEX has inaugurated a new administration building in Brazil. The ultra-modern new building at the Bonsucesso-Guarulhos site near São Paulo is now home to all of the company's administrative staff.

The ceremonial opening of the new headquarters was attended by the owner family da Cunha, the employees of SCHÜTZ VASITEX, and Roland Strassburger as CEO of SCHÜTZ.

The three-storey office complex with a capacity for around 100 employees is equipped with the latest IT technology. The premises in the new building were specially designed for state-of-the-art work processes: for example, in addition to the office workstations, there are various meeting places promoting interdepartmental professional exchanges. In future, customers and guests will be welcomed in state-of-the-art meeting rooms equipped with the most advanced technology. In a new showroom, visitors can also find out about the latest products and technologies offered by SCHÜTZ.
